OUR COUNTRY. When the Immortal Declaration Gave a birthday to our nation, Was proclaimed throughout our land, By a faithful, patriot band, Freedom's reign was then most glorious. In our infantland victorious, Freedom reigned.

When the Federal Constitution Was created by concession, Much to Slavery was conceded. And to Slavery, too, was deeded. Slavery's reign was then inglorious, In our youthful land victorious, Slavery reigned.

Then, for more than seventy years, Freedom and Slavery went on shares; The larger share was always riven, And to Slavery it was given. Slavery's reign was still inglorious, In our levely land victorious,

By the people, not dejected, Slavery's minious raised a storm, Threatened our country to deform. Freedom's reign again was glorious, In our country was victorious. Freedom reigned.

But, in time of old Buchanan, Floyd and others stole the cannon. South Carolina took the lead, And some others did secode.

But, when Lincoln took the chair, The Southern States were in a flare; They fired and took Fort Sumter, too, Just to show what they could do.

War at length we find created, Which has never yet abated, Blood and plunder, cannon's thunder, All to bring the rebels under. Bloodshed reigns, it reigns inglorious, In our levely land victorious,

Grant and Sheridan now attack them, In Virginia they are at them, Richmond City is invested, And its strength is sorely tested. B'oodshed reigns, it reign i nglerious, In our nation, tis victorious; Bloodshed reigns.

At Savannah they accept him; At Fort Fisher, rebels beaten, Wilmington will soon be taken.

Freedom will reign. a Old Maryland her slaves has freed. And Missouri, too, indeed. Tennessee is coming too, And Arkansas nearly through.

Freedom's reign, it will be glorious, When o'er Slavery we're victorious, Freedom will reign.

By the Congress now assembled, Freedom's friends are now rejoicing While the States are it endersing. Freedom's reign is truly glorious: O'er our land, almost victorious, Freedom reigne.

Still a better day is coming, When the rebels will be running, Others, too, their duty learning, Soldiers to their friends returning ; O'or this lovely land victorious,

Love to God and man is blended. Christ from Heaven to Earth descended. By ten thousand saints attended. Jesus will reign, will reign victorious, Over Heaven and Earth most glorious, Jesus will reign. O. MINER.

IF DIRECTIONS ARE FOLLOWED. TOTCALL FOR A CIRCULAR DESCRIB-SYMPTOMS:

The Symptoms of Catarrh, as they generally appear, are at first very slight. Persons find that they have a cold; they have frequent attacks; and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition, the nose may be dry, or a elight In this condition, the nose may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, afterwards becoming hick and adhesive. As the cisease assumes a chronic form, the discharges are increased in quantity, and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offensive, causing a very bad breath; the voice is thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of smell is lessened or destroyed; and dealness frequently takes place. Another *200,000 00 weak; the sense of smell is lessened or destroyed; and deafness frequently takes place. Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is, that the person is obliged to clear his threat in the morning of a thick or slimy mucus which has fallen down from the head during the night.—

When this takes place the person may be sure his disease is on its way to the lungs, and sho'd loose no time in arresting it.

The above are but few of the many-Cotarrhal Symptoms.

DR. D. H. SEELYE:
Dear Sir;—In reply to your notice of the 18th instant, I would say that I was severely afflicted with Catarrh for years when I became acquainted with you, and bought two bottles of your Liquid Catarrh Remedy. Before I had used one bottle I was sensibly improved, and before the second bottle was finished, was completely cared. I can recommend the medicine to all afflicted with Catarrh. Respectfully yours.
